Lesson 13

Action Verbs and Indirect Objects

An indirect object can appear only in a sentence that has a direct object. Just as a direct object answers the question whom? or what? after an action verb, an indirect object answers the question to whom? or for whom? An indirect object always comes before the direct object.

James bought Corey a cold drink. (The indirect object Corey answers the question, James bought a cold drink to whom?)

Naomi gives the class red pencils. (The indirect object class answers the question Naomi gives red pencils to whom?)

► Exercise 1 Write DO in the blank if the italicized word is a direct object or IO if it is an indirect object.

- IO — The doctor gave Maya a vision test.
 1. My cousin Rita brought us fresh-picked vegetables.
 2. Loud music give my mother headaches.
 3. Janelle baked her family double-chocolate brownies.
 4. Louie's sister made the team a pitcher of lemonade.
 5. Ezra read us the newspaper from Mexico City.
 6. Colleen showed her father her new gymnastics routine.
 7. Camille loaned us her tent.
 8. He offered my mother a ride to her office.
 9. My sister gave the dog a dish of water.
 10. The president gave me his autograph.
 11. Carmen sewed her new niece a crib quilt.
 12. My father prepared us a feast.
 13. The middle school sent the shelter more than five hundred cans of food.

Adverbs give us more information about the verb (action) in a sentence. An adverb tells us how, when, or where something was done.

Many of the adverbs that tell how are easy to find in a sentence because they end in the letters -ly.

Example: He ran quickly so he wouldn't miss the bus.

Some people think that all adverbs end in -ly, but they don't.

Only some of the adverbs that tell us when end in -ly.

Example: They rarely call me. We always sing together. Amy will speak now.

Few adverbs that tell us where end in -ly.

Example: You can put your project here. The sun is shining outside.

Circle the adverb in each sentence below. On the line in front of the sentence, tell whether the adverb answers how, when, or where.

1. Scott carefully finished his homework.
 2. We're going to the store today.
 3. The energetic dog ran away.
 4. The noisy helicopter was flying high in the sky.
 5. The young girl and her partner danced gracefully.
 6. We often eat dinner with our friends.
 7. He cleaned the carpet inside the house.
 8. My cousin is never afraid.
 9. They recently moved into our neighborhood.
 10. My mom and dad are happily married.
